ANGELOLOGY

The study of angels or the doctrine of angelology is one of the ten major categories of theology developed in many systematic theological works. The tendency, however, has been to neglect it.

So, writes Charles C. Ryrie

INTRO

Imagine a universe teeming with life, not just the life we know on earth, but realms filled with beings beyond our wildest dreams. The fact that God has created different realms of personal beings other than mankind is a thrilling revelation, one that expands our understanding of the divine, His grand design, and His workings throughout the cosmos.

INTRO

Picture this: Even though humanity is the very best of that what God made still it is not the pinnacle of creation. Just as the gap between humans and the lower forms of life is bridged by a myriad of creatures, so too might there be beings of immense intelligence and power that exist between us and God. The ancient mythologies of lesser deities that GOD calls gods, hint at this possibility, suggesting a hierarchy of beings superior in power to humans yet subordinate to God and like brothers to believers. This isn't mere speculation; the Scriptures explicitly affirm the existence of such spiritual entities.

INTRO

It would be a grave mistake to let our reliance on physical senses and materialism blind us to the reality of these power beings. Just because they are beyond our sight and touch doesn't mean they don't exist. The holy scriptures gives them an awesome though mystical place. The adventure of understanding these spiritual realms beckons us to broaden our horizons and embrace the full spectrum of God's creation.

UNIVERSE STARS AND ANGELS NEGLECTED

There is only a little amount of writing devoted to angelology in standard theologies. This disregard for the doctrine may simply neglect it or may indicate rejection of this area of biblical teaching. Even Calvin was cautious in discussing this subject.

Charles C. Ryrie, Basic Theology, Victor Books, Wheaton, IL, 1987, chapter 17, electronic media.

THEY DO NOT WANT YOU TO KNOW

And sure, I had also enmity against me for this subject, because we are going into a realm to get understanding what is the cause for events on earth.

The evil creatures which are fallen, do not want us to know and sinners will go along with them not even knowing what they plan and perform.

THE CREATION OF ANGLES

ON THE 4TH DAY GOD CREATED THE

ANGELS SET OVER THE ELEMENTS

There are Angels set over the elements of Gods creation like angels of light

2 Corinthians 11:14

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

FROM ADAM OVER JOB AND MOSES

Though the doctrine of angels is a significant theme in the Word of God, it often remains shrouded in mystery. The Bible frequently mentions angels, yet their true nature and roles are not described with the same clarity as other biblical subjects. In the oldest books of the Holy Scriptures are these Invisibles already mentioned. This enigmatic quality invites us to delve deeper, sparking a curiosity to uncover more about these celestial beings and their place in God's grand design. What secrets might we uncover if we look beyond the surface? And where do we get more knowledge?

JOB GIVES US UNDERSTANDING

These following references indicate that Job and his friends had an understanding of angels as divine beings who serve God, have access to His presence, and can play various roles, including being messengers and witnesses to creation. However, their knowledge also acknowledges that angels are not perfect and can be subject to error.

A hand holding a glowing orb with circuit lines. The background is a warm, golden-yellow gradient. On the left side, there is a vertical strip showing a hand holding a glowing, spherical object. White circuit lines, resembling a stylized tree or a network, branch out from the top and bottom of this strip, extending across the left edge of the image.

Sons of God: In Job 1:6 and Job 2:1, the term "sons of God" is used to refer to angels. These verses describe a scene where the sons of God present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also comes among them. This indicates that angels have access to God's presence and are part of a divine council.

The Adversary: Satan, who is considered an angel, plays a significant role in the story. He is depicted as an adversary who challenges Job's righteousness, suggesting that angels can have different roles and purposes, including testing humans.

A hand holding a glowing orb with circuit lines. The background is a warm, golden-brown gradient. On the left side, there is a vertical strip showing a hand holding a glowing orb, with white circuit lines and nodes extending upwards and outwards. The text is on the right side of the image.

Messengers: In Job 4:18, Eliphaz, one of Job's friends, mentions that God does not trust His servants and charges His angels with error. This implies that angels are seen as messengers or servants of God, but they are not infallible.

Witnesses to Creation: In Job 38:7, God speaks of the morning stars singing together and all the sons of God shouting for joy during the creation of the world. This suggests that angels were present at the creation and celebrated God's work

ANGEL OF THE LORD

Angel of the LORD is clearly an appearance of God himself as no one would say the Apostle Paul is serving an Angel instead of God

Acts 27:23

For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

CONFIDENTIAL MESSAGES

Jesus's Angel appears to Jochanan as the angel of God

Revelation 1:1

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

Revelation 1: 1

These are the confidential counsels (Or simply 'Sodot' — the Hebrew title for the Revelation) which YHWH gave to Yeshua Ha-Mashiach, to show his servants what will happen soon. And he sent them by the hand of his messenger to his servant Yochanan the witness of the word of YHWH, and the testimony of Yeshua Ha-Mashiach, of that which he saw.

THE ANGEL OF THE LORD

The second difficulty concerns the identity of “the angel of the Lord” as it is used in the Old Testament. A careful study of the many passages using this term suggests that this is no ordinary angel, but a Theophany, or better, a Christophany, a preincarnate appearance of Yeshua. The angel is identified as God, speaks as God, and claims to exercise the prerogatives of God.

THE ANGEL OF THE LORD

Still, in some passages He distinguishes Himself from Yahweh (Gen. 16:7-14; 21:17-18; 22:11-18; 31:11-13, Ex. 3:2; Judg. 2:1-4; 5:23; 6:11-22; 13:3-22; 2 Sam. 24:16; Zech. 1:12; 3:1; 12:8). That the Angel of the Lord is a Christophany is suggested by the fact a clear reference to “the Angel of the Lord” ceases after the incarnation.

References to an angel of the Lord in Luke 1:11; and 2:8 and Acts 5:19 lack the Greek article which would suggest an ordinary angel.

SONS OF GOD

SONS OF GOD

In their holy state, unfallen angels are called “sons of God” in the sense that they were brought into existence by the creation of God (Job 1:6; 38:7). Though they are never spoken of as created in the image of God, they are also be called “sons of God” because they possess personality like God. This term is also used in Genesis 6:2 which tells us the “sons of God” took wives from among the “daughters of men.”

SONS OF GOD

Some scholars understand “the sons of God” of Genesis 6:2 to refer to the sons of the godly line of Seth © 1998 Biblical Studies Press <http://www.bible.org> 3 and the “daughters of men” to refer to the ungodly line of the Cainites.

Though the bible has no support for this point of view

SONS OF GOD

Still others believe they refer to despots, powerful rulers. Ross writes: The incident is one of hubris, the proud overstepping of bounds. Here it applies to “the sons of God,” a lusty, powerful lot striving for fame and fertility.

They were probably powerful rulers who were controlled (indwelt) by fallen angels. It may be that fallen angels left their habitation.

We never find in the Bible that a person was possessed by an Angel only by devils / demons

SONS OF GOD

Others, in keeping with the use of “sons of God” in Job 1:6, 2:1, 4:18, 38:7, believe the term refers to fallen angels who mated with the daughters of men to produce an extremely wicked and powerful progeny that led to the extreme wickedness of Noah’s day.

This latter view find further support in 2 Peter 2:4-6 and Jude 6-7

ANGEL ARE EXTREMELY POWERFUL

Even though Angels are bound to time when on earth still they demonstrate a precision and an unleash of power over the enemies of the LORD in an absolute vehement action.

ANGELS ARE A PART IN GODS PLAN

- They are the daring couriers of GOD, racing across lands to deliver his messages to the people (Luke 1:11–19, Acts 8:26, 10:3–8, 22, 27:23–24).
- They execute GOD's harsh decrees, unleashing plagues upon the land. (2 Samuel 24:16–17), smiting the leaders of the Assyrian army (2 Chronicles 32:21), striking King Herod dead because he denied to give glory to GOD (Acts 12:23), or pouring out the wrath of GOD in bowls down to the earth (Revelation 16:1).

ANGELS ARE A PART IN GODS PLAN

- When Christ come back, armies of angels will accompany the darling of Heaven their King (Matthew 16:27, Luke 9:26, 2 Thessalonians 1:7).
- They roam the earth as GOD's trusted emissaries, ever watchful and ready to act (Zechariah 1:10–11).
- They wage relentless war against enemy and devil forces, striking fear into their hearts (Daniel 10:13; Revelation 12:7–8).

ANGELS ARE A PART IN GODS PLAN

- John records that “an angel” (anonymous so that the devil cannot take revenge) grabbed the dragon, that old serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, and threw him into the pit . . .” (Revelation 20:1–3).

- When Christ returns, an archangel will come with him to proclaim his coming (1 Thessalonians 4:16, see also Revelation 18:1–2, 21, 19:17–18, and other passages).

ANGEL DO THE WILL OF GOD

As Gods will is done in heaven so,
the angels become an example.

ANGELS DO NOT MARRY

Mark 12:24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

FEMALE ANGELS?

Zechariah 5:9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

ANGELS THAT SINNED

THE BOOK OF ENOCH

THE STORY OF THE WATCHERS

- The Watchers were a group of 200 angels who were tasked with watching over humanity.
- However, they became enamored with human women and decided to descend to Earth to take them as wives.
- This act of rebellion was led by their leader, Semyaza.

WHAT THEY TAUGHT

Once on Earth, the Watchers taught humans various forbidden knowledge and skills, such as:

- Sorcery and enchantments
- Astrology and the movement of celestial bodies
- Weapon-making and warfare techniques
- Cosmetics and the art of beautification

THE CAUSE

Their union with human women resulted in the birth of the Nephilim, a race of giants who caused great chaos and destruction on Earth.

The Nephilim's violent behavior and the corruption brought by the Watchers' teachings led to widespread suffering and sin among humans.

God intervenes:
Because of corruption and devastation.

He sent the archangels Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, and Uriel to deal with the situation. They were tasked with:

Binding the Watchers:

The rebellious angels were bound and cast into the depths of the Earth, where they would remain imprisoned until the Day of Judgment.

Destroying the Nephilim:

The giants were to be destroyed to cleanse the Earth of their influence.

Purifying the Earth:

The archangels worked to restore order and purity to the world.

THE BOOK OF ENOCH

The Book of Enoch provides a detailed account of these events, highlighting the consequences of the Watchers' actions and the divine response to their rebellion. This story tells us about the dangers of disobedience and the importance of maintaining divine order.

OFFSPRING OF THE WATCHERS

In the Book of Enoch, God decrees a severe judgment for the offspring of the Watchers, known as the Nephilim. These giants, born from the union of the Watchers and human women, brought great chaos and corruption to the Earth. Here's what God decided for them:

DESTRUCTION:

God commanded the archangels to destroy the Nephilim. Their violent and destructive nature had caused immense suffering, and their eradication was necessary to restore order and purity to the world.

SPIRITS OF THE NEPHILIM:

After their physical destruction, the spirits of the Nephilim were condemned to roam the Earth. These spirits, often referred to as evil spirits or demons, were to remain on Earth and cause trouble for humanity. They were not granted peace or rest, as their existence was a result of the Watchers' rebellion.

JUDGMENT DAY:

The spirits of the Nephilim are to face final judgment on the Day of Judgment. Until then, they continue to exist as malevolent entities, influencing and tormenting humans.

TO RESTORE LOVE AND ORDER

This judgment highlights the consequences of the Watchers' actions and serves as a warning about the dangers of disobedience and corruption.

The story underscores the importance of maintaining divine order and the severe repercussions of defying God's will.
