THE BIBLE

UNTIL THIS HAPPENED

CALLED TO FELLOWSHIP

Gen 1:27 God created man in his own image

See also Isa 43:7 und Col 1:16.

CALLED TO ETERNAL LIFE

Gen 2:17 *but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil,
Called to rule
for when you eat of it you will surely die.*

CALLED TO RULE

Gen 1:28 ...be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground.

CREATION IN 6 DAYS: 24-HOUR-DAYS OR “PERIOD-DAYS”?

To adapt to so-called science many interpreters (also Evangelicals) construe the days of creation in Gen 1 as creation-periods. Among others the following two facts seem to motivate this interpretation:

1. The Darwinist evolution-theory demands long intervals of time.
2. The claim of modern science, apparently proving that the earth, i.e. the universe, is billions of years old.

FOR THE PERIOD-DAYS-HYPOTHESIS

Evangelical theologians who hold a day-period-hypothesis insist that this interpretation (literary, poetical) does not impinge on the inerrancy and inspiration of the Bible. There are many representatives of the authority and inerrancy of Holy Scripture who support the day-periodhypothesis. Here two of their arguments:

1. The Hebrew word “yōm” (~Ay) is not only used for a 24-hour-day but can also refer to a period or an epoch (comp. for instance: day of salvation, day of judgement...).

2. On the 6th day, God created the animals on the ground and also man (cf. Gen 1:24ff). According to the text, they were created on one and the same day: the animals of the field, man and woman. In Gen 2:18ff, Adam should have given names to all the animals, before he became conscious of being alone, i.e. without a partner. God then caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, took one of his ribs out of which he created Eve. Advocates of the “day-period hypothesis” say it would have been impossible for all this to happen on one day. For the naming of animals alone, Adam would have needed months or even years.

How it was looking to name the animals we do not know and if Adam named the Animals like Noah had the help of GOD to bring All wanted animals to him. Adam could have named 1.000.000 Animals taking 5 seconds each.

One thing remains with all those not believing the biblical text literally.

They make the power of GOD lesser as they are limited themselves. Still, it was SUPERNATURALLY created.

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

1. The expression and there was evening and there was morning speaks against an interpretation of periods. As mentioned, it is a fact that the Hebrew word yōm can mean something other than a day of 24 hours (e.g. day of salvation). Compare also Gen 7:11 where it speaks of years, months and days in the usual meaning of the words concerned.

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

2. In Gen 1:14-18, it speaks of lights that divide day and night and determine festivals, days and years. What if these festivals should last for millions of years?

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

3. On the 3rd day plants, trees etc. were created (Gen 1:9-13). How should these have survived without the sun, which was only created on the 4th day if (as supporters of the “day-period hypothesis” claim) these days of creation have to be understood as (long) periods? However, we admit that for the photosynthesis the presence of the sun is not in all cases absolutely indispensable. The plants use the energy of the light (of different kinds of sources of light) for the photosynthesis. According to Gen 1, the light was present right from the beginning (i.e. since the first day of creation). – However, an earth without sun, during billions of years, would be an earth without possibility of “life”!

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

4.A. The pollination of many plants is by insects. According to Gen 1, plants were already created on the 3rd day, but insects not before the 6th day. If the days of creation should be long periods, it remains unexplained how plants, dependent on insects, could survive their long absence. Against this argument the supporters of the day-period-hypothesis reply that the 6 days of creation (for them periods of creation) need not necessarily be understood chronologically time wise. The sequence of the six days is to be explained as poetical style. In view of the divine reason for the Sabbath law in Exo 20:11, this explanation is very questionable.

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

4.B Apropos Exo 20:11: If one alleges that certain fish were living on insects right from the beginning of the creation (which we doubt, because of Gen 1:30) and not only after the entry of sin and death into the world because of Adam's sin (cf. Rom 5:12; Gen 3), then the “day-period-hypothesis” is even more problematic because, according to Gen 1:20-23, the fish and birds were created on the 5th day, whereas the insects were obviously created only on the 6th day (see Gen 1:24-25). Therefore, if one assumes that there was a gap of millions of years between the 5th and the 6th creation-day, then one would wonder on what those fishes (and birds) were living on in the meantime.

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

5. In the face of these weighty arguments, the advocates of the “day-period-hypothesis” are forced to affirm that the order of the six creation-days (for them of course 6 creation-periods) must not necessarily be interpreted as chronological but could be rather explained by the poetic style of the author. But we cannot accept this objection, otherwise the reason indicated by God for the Sabbath in Exo 20:11 would be incomprehensible. Therefore, the following argument:

FOR A CREATION IN SIX 24-HOUR-DAYS

6. The model for the Sabbath law in Exo 20:11 would be absurd if the days of creation have to be understood as long periods.
7. After all, God only has to speak a word and it happens (cf. Psa 33:9; 147:14-18; Isa 48:13; 50:2; Heb 11:3); he does not need millions of years. It is to be observed that God created man as an adult being. The chicken existed before the egg and the trees were already bearing fruit when they were created. It did not take thousands or millions of years, until the first rays of light reached the earth. God created the stars in such a way that their rays reached the earth from the beginning.

[KJV] Rev 6:13 And the stars of heaven
fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

THE ORIGIN OF MANKIND

Many different religions tried to give and explanation of their world view though the one who made it needs to be heard

THE RACES

The whole human race has been created in Adam and multiplies as far as body and soul are concerned through natural procreation called Traducianism

The Bible teaches that all man and nations are descended from the first two humans, i.e. from Adam and Eve:

Gen 1:27 ...he created him male and female...

Act 17:26 ...From one man he made every nation of men...

GAP THEORY

The Bible knows nothing of a Pre-Adamite (before Adam) or Para-Adamite (beside Adam) race. The unity of the human race is also corroborated by the universality of sin:

Rom 5:12 ...just as sin entered the world through one man...

1Co 15:22 For as in Adam all die...

THE INNER HUMAN

DICHOTOMOUS VIEW

This view holds the duality of man - that spirit and soul are one and the same thing, that man isn't a trinity but just two parts. They base their view upon the many passages, which use the word 'soul' to signify all of the immaterial part of man, such as the one considered above. It is true that soul is used sometimes to signify this part of man and sometimes spirit. In the light of two or more passages clearly separating them these passages must be considered as merely using the term soul or spirit in a plural sense to signify the whole immaterial nature of man. Such are the terms "Lose your soul." Soul here must mean all of the immaterial part of man in contrast to death of the body. (Also the usage of "spirit man" in Ecclesiastes 3:21 for all of man's immaterial or spiritual nature.)

THE NATURE OF MAN

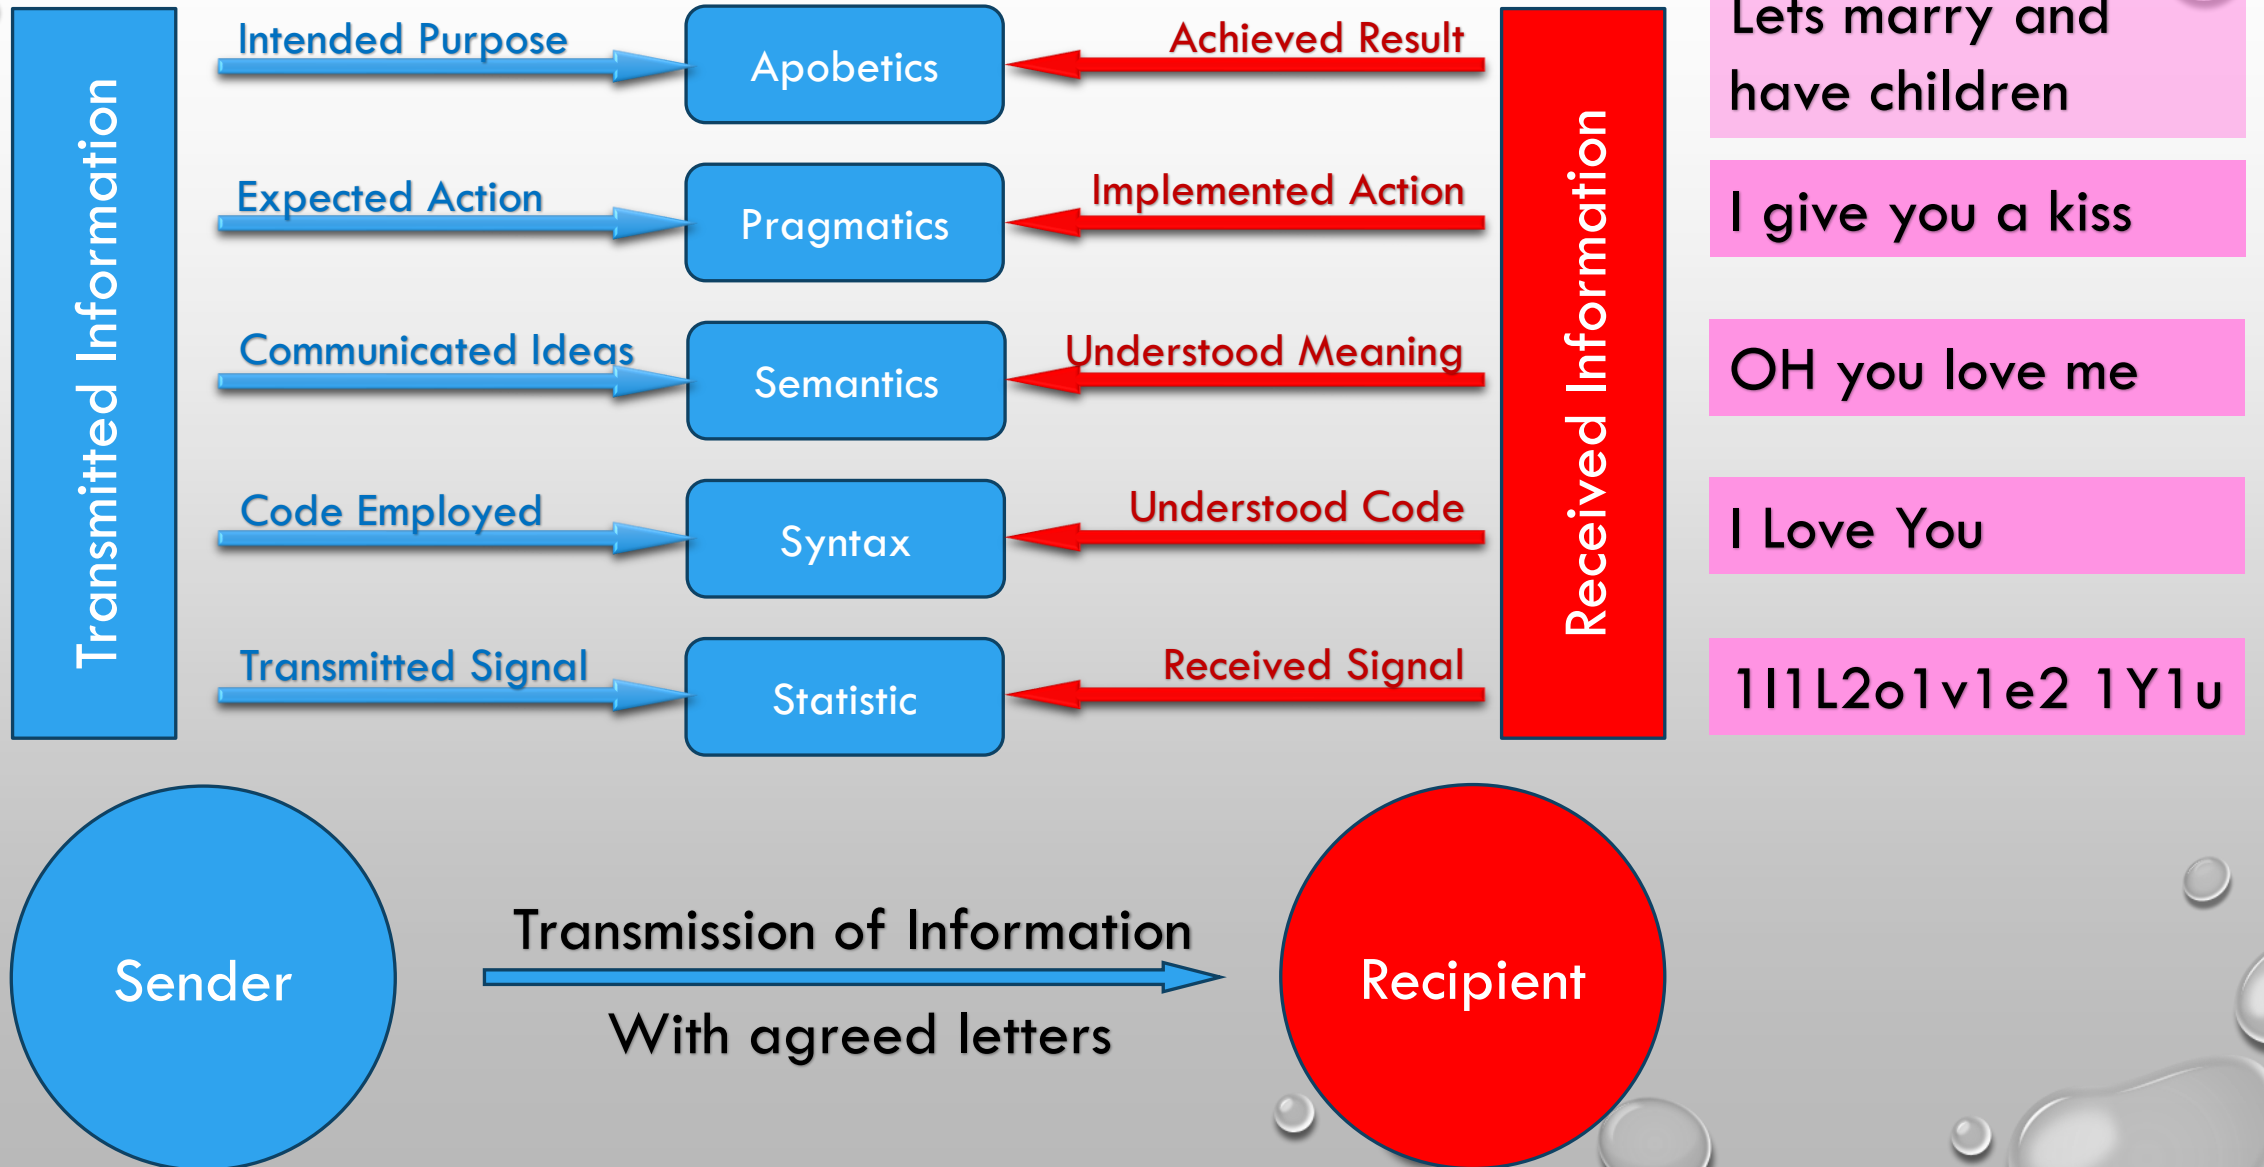

The fight of spirit and soul at GODs word

Heb 4:12 For the word of God quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

SPIRIT COMES WITH INFORMATION

Eph 6:17 And take the helmet of salvation,
and the sword of the Spirit,
which is the word of God:
