The Woman and the Dragon

<sup>1</sup> And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: <sup>2</sup> And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

<sup>3</sup> And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. <sup>4</sup> And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. Revelation 12:1-4

Artemis

Who is Artemis in Greek Mythology?

Artemis was an important goddess in the Greek pantheon. She was the goddess of hunting and nature. She loved to hunt and spent much of her time in the forest. The god Zeus was Artemis' father and the Titan Leto was her mother. Artemis had a twin brother named Apollo. Artemis never married and remained a virgin. As a result, she was also associated with chastity and young women. It was very uncommon for women to remain unmarried in ancient Greece. She was one of only three unmarried virgin goddesses in the Greek world. The others were Athena, the goddess of war, and Hestia, the goddess of the hearth (Fire places). Although Artemis did not have any children of her own, she protected women during pregnancy and during childbirth. Artemis was included in many ancient myths. In some myths, she helped people. For example, she healed the injured hero Aeneas. In contrast, Artemis was also known to punish those who made her angry, as explained later in this lesson with the case of the mortal woman Niobe. Because of her close relationship to nature, Artemis was often symbolized with a bow and the moon. She also had a pack of hunting dogs that traveled with her. The dogs were a present from the god Pan. Artemis was worshiped around the Greek world. One of her most famous temples was the Temple of Artemis at Ephesus. She was known there as the Lady of Ephesus. A statue of Artemis as the Lady of Ephesus was shown with many breasts in statues at Ephesus. This depiction is very different from how Artemis was shown in Greece. In addition to Greece, Artemis was also worshipped in the Roman world. Her Latin name was Diana, which means  daylight.

NASA about Apophis

- ➡ NASA Scientists say Apophis is between 310 meters and 680 meters in diameter, so even at the lower estimate the asteroid is almost as wide as the Eiffel Tower is tall. It is also travelling at a speed of around 16500 kilometer per hour.
- ➡ The fastest bullets are 3,800 km/h
- ➡ In April 2029 Apophis is due to make another, much closer pass around 32000 Kilometers from the Earth — several times closer than the distance between our planet and the Moon. (400000 Kilometer)

Christians about Apophis

- ➡ Real size is about 4 Kilometers in diameter, this estimate makes it as big as a mountain. It is also travelling at a speed of around 16500 kilometer per hour.
- ➡ In 13th April 2029 → 24th of Aviv 2029 it may hit the Earth.
- ➡ Going back 3 ½ year we come to the 5th day of the feast of Tabernacles where the time in Egypt is remembered and the God of destruction in Egypt was Apophis.
- ➡ first its broken pieces will come like a fire rain then the main rock and the rest of its spits.
